Mr Pick, agent for Square Meadow Ltd, reported that the work at Lower Hayton was to excavate an agricultural biofertilizer lagoon under Class A permitted development to store outflow from the biodigester at Wigley Farm. Square Meadow Ltd have received approval from the Environment Agency under the SSAFO (Storing silage, slurry and agricultural fuel oil) process. Shropshire Council Planning Enforcement had visited the site today and confirmed that the lagoon had not breached permitted development rights. However, a retrospective planning application is required for the track from the highway to the lagoon. Members of the public proceeded to ask questions of Mr Pick and Square Meadow Ltd:

MP1 (Member of the Public) noted that it is very close to the AONB (Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty) and was concerned about the odour. Square Meadow (SM) responded that if odour became a nuisance, it could be reported to the Environment Agency. MP2 asked if a separate risk assessment for this site had been produced. SM responded that it had. MP3 asked if there were plans for the lagoon to be covered. SM responded that when it is legally required to be covered it will be. MP4 asked about odour management. SM responded that it is not subject to odour management as it is more than 400m from other properties. MP5 asked about the level of traffic expected. SM stated that the traffic will be spread over the year rather than in specific periods as it is at present. MP6 asked if anything other than the outflow from the biodigester would be put into the lagoon. SM reported that it would be just outflow from the biodigester. MP7 reported the smell from spreading recently. SM have not been spreading. MP8 raised concerns about the lagoon being in an area that floods from the river. SM reported that there is a 2.5 metre bund around the lagoon which will protect the area. MP9 asked why the biodigester at Wigley Farm had closed tanks but the lagoon did not. SM stated that as it was the end product it should have no odour and therefore did not need to be in a closed tank. When it is being spread there will be an odour which should dissipate within 48 hours. MP10 was concerned about the effects of the traffic on the highways. SM reported that there should be no more traffic than at present and hopefully less. MP11 asked if Square Meadow has an environmental permit. SM reported that it does not require one. MP12 asked why it was sited there. SM reported that it was sited there to reduce movements as it will be used on fields within the vicinity of the lagoon. MP13 asked about the size of the vehicles. SM reported that they would be 44-ton tankers. MP14 asked for a guarantee that the contents of the lagoon would only be from Wigley Farm. SM stated the contents of the lagoon would only be from Wigley Farm. MP15 stated that he was concerned that planning was not required for a development that is very close to the AONB, will affect the amenity of the residents and their property values. MP16 stated that this was a national planning problem. Cllr Robin Gatehouse thanked those who had attended the meeting and requested that they visit the village hall for other events in the future.
